

Prophetic Word Unto My Haughty Servant Benny Hinn

“You think the ministry is for money, Benny? Repent, and do My will. Why are you greedy for more? Don’t you already have enough? I will punish you, O wicked man of sin! How dare you require more money from My people. Set out and do My will. Go to the streets as I did, and get off your high horse. Humble yourself and reach the common man who cannot attend your conferences. Eliminate your pride, which is offensive unto Me, and infests your heart. Come down from your world to the streets where I Am. Give away all and make yourself nothing so that you can become all in My Kingdom. I did not require money for what I did in Jerusalem, nor hold conferences there. I was free to all who required Me in their lives. So, humble yourself from your great pride and come down into My Kingdom from the haughty world of ministries, and do My will as at first. Your LORD has spoken, Benny Hinn. Repent!”
